Ricky McNealy: by Ben Tidwell

Ricky would love to go to the gym with someone but he's always so busy on his blogs that he doesn't have time to plan with friends. Moreover, he doesn't have friends.

Ricky downloads Lonely Athletes to find someone to lift with while he continues to work on his blog. He selects what he wants to do and how advanced he is.

Ricky connects with someone nearby who is also looking for a workout partner. They are able to chat through the app and make a plan.

Ricky grabs his gym clothes that he hasn't used in years and don't fit anymore. He's excited to meet his new partner.

Ricky may have exaggerated how strong he was through our app... They may not have been the best match for one another but that's ok.

There's plenty of users and all kinds of options for Ricky to find a better partner for next time he goes to the gym.
